1. Attached are [redacted] the switch plan of the OSW noise diode Type 2558 and of the "Mischkopf" of the same instrument.
2. It is reported that the completion of this instrument is being flushed at OSW and that overtime work is required since last-minute changes in the construction of some parts of the instrument have to be made. The "Mischkopf" is reportedly an entirely new feature of the instrument.
3. These [redacted] are sent to you for retention.
